The Master's Message

My Brethren:

Our stated communication on April 11 will offer a variety of interesting topics and experiences. After starting dinner 15 minutes early at 6:15 p.m., we will move to our Lodge room where Brothers and visitors will hear the winning essays in the Masonic Youth essay competition that AW22 hosted over the last month. Each winner will receive a $500 award in addition to the lifelong knowledge related to the Masonic life and example of Brother George Washington. After the presentations and before opening Lodge, our Lodge Archivist will display several important artifacts from our Archives and describe their history and significance.

March was yet again a busy and joyful month for the members of our Lodge. We visited HKF-JB Lodge No. 349 at their stated communication, and then, our neighbors at Andrew Jackson Lodge No. 120, both at their stated communication and for their Table Lodge. At our own stated communication, Wor. Bro. Van Gilbert delivered an extremely informative and interesting presentation on the Place of the Most Holy in King Solomon's Temple, presenting a wide range of biblical and historical references.

We ended the month by a fraternal trip to the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia, followed by a whole day of exploring this historically significant city. The Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania is a truly spectacular place and one of the great Masonic buildings in the world. Witnessing the craftsmanship and ornamental detail of the interior was truly one of the highlights of our Masonic journeys. I would like to thank the several Brethren from HKF-JB Lodge who joined us for the trip.

I hope that April brings light, warmth and industry in your hearts and minds.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Nikola Nikolov
Master
