LODGE BULLETIN
MAY 2015

TO THE BRETHREN

This month we are going to offer something different on the evening of our stated communication. Through the auspices of the Alexandria-Caen Sister Committee, we have an opportunity to attend a special lecture on the Marquis de Lafayette, which is a public event being held in the North Lodge Room at 7:00 PM.

Rather than offer a separate program in Lodge, I thought this would be a great opportunity for the brethren to learn a bit more about an historical figure and brother who has his own connection to both Washington and our Lodge. We will gather in our Lodge anteroom at 6:45, move together to the North Lodge Room, and then begin our stated communication after the lecture.

The speaker is Marc Leepson, author of Lafayette: Lessons in Leadership from the Idealist General. Mr. Leepson is an accomplished journalist, historian, and the author of eight books, most recently What So Proudly We Hailed, the first biography of the author of "The Star-Spangled Banner" in more than 75 years. His previous books include Desperate Engagement, the story of the Civil War Battle of Monocacy and Confederate General Jubal Early's attack on Washington; Flag: An American Biography, and Saving Monticello: The Levy Family's Epic Quest to Rescue the House that Jefferson Built). He edited The Webster's New World Dictionary of the Vietnam War, and wrote two books on health topics in the 1980s.

Following the stated communication we will adjourn to the dining room for our Festive Board. Please notify our Senior Steward of your intention to attend the meal via email at: reservations@aw22.org.

We will be working in the degrees on the fourth Thursday of the month. Degree work is the heart and soul of our Craft, and as always, the presence of all brethren of the Lodge is requested to help make an impression on the candidate. If it is within the length of your cable tow, please join us on the 28th.

Finally, I wanted to make one last announcement that the Grand Master's official visit to Districts 1A, 1B, and 54, will take place on Saturday, May 9, at 6:30 PM, at 1430 W. Braddock Road in Alexandria. For tickets, please contact the Lodge Secretary at secretary@aw22.org.

Sincerely & Fraternaly,
