

Alexandria-Washington Lodge No. 22

November 1978

FROM THE EAST

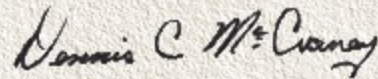

Brethren,

November is here and as the year draws to a close, we still have much to do. At our first and only Stated Communication this month, we will take care of our usual business and receive those Brethren celebrating their Masonic Birthdays this month. Worshipful Brother Willard D Flockhart, District Educational Officer for Masonic District 1A, will also be with us to present a short program.

We will have three called communications this month; one for each of the three degrees. Your support at these meetings is greatly appreciated and most helpful to your officers. These degrees most probably will be the last degrees conferred this year. This will allow your officers to attend the elections and installations of officers of our sister Lodges next month.

Brethren, your support of our Fraternity and concern for the Craft have been a source of inspiration and a great help to your officers. We would like to thank you again for your consideration.

Sincerely and fraternally,
Dennis C. McCraney

Worshipful Master
