

Alexandria-Washington Lodge No. 22

November 1980

FROM THE EAST

Brethren,

Thanks to you, the membership of this lodge, the recent visit of Constitutional Lodge No. 294 of Beverley, England was a success. I extend a hearty "THANK YOU" to all who helped both physically and financially to make the visitation a most memorable event. Two people who deserve particular mention are: Wor. Bro. Edgar Bielby of Constitutional Lodge and Wor. Bro. Odie Howell of our Lodge, for without their efforts the visit would have been an impossible task.

At our Stated Meeting this month we will celebrate Masonic Birthdays, have our monthly education presentation, conduct a Master Mason examination and possibly have a Veteran's Emblem presentation. Take note that we are dark on Thanksgiving Day, thus we have only one Stated Meeting this month.

Three Called Meetings are scheduled for November, two of these are for work in the MM Degree. The Officers request your help at these Called Meetings to take a part and also to impress the candidate by the attendance on the nights he reaches his Masonic milestones. I know this plea will not go unanswered!

Sincerely and fraternally,

James R. Freeman

Worshipful Master
