TO THE BRETHREN

I want to thank everyone who attended the MRF Symposium last month, especially those brethren who helped with setup and logistics. It was a truly special event for the Lodge. We had over 130 brethren in Lodge, from 60 lodges in 26 states and four countries, including the Grand Master of Minnesota and four Past Grand Masters of other jurisdictions. Grand Masonic Hall was seated to capacity for our Festive Board, and a good time was had by all.

We received the following comment from one of the attendees: “Next to actually becoming a Mason, that was the greatest Masonic experience I’ve ever had. I feel reenergized and rejuvenated with Masonic philosophy and feel ready to turn this love of our great Fraternity into the action needed to change its current state. I came to the symposium by myself, knowing nobody, and I left with 130 new friends who I intend to stay connected with for some time. I would like to thank AW22 for organizing an event that lit a fire inside of me. It was a true advancement in Masonic knowledge in every possible sense.”

Our Stated Communication for September will be on Thursday, September 8th, and will be Warden’s Night. Our Senior Warden, Bro. Mike Bailey will be presiding in the East, and he will give us an idea of what he has planned for the coming year. As usual, there will be a Festive Board open to all Masons after the meeting. Please e-mail the Stewards at reservations@aw22.org to reserve a meal at the Festive Board.

We will also be having a Called Communication on Tuesday, September 27th for work in the degrees. As always I encourage all of the members of Alexandria-Washington Lodge No. 22 to join us for the degree work as it truly is one of the most important things we do as Freemasons.

Looking ahead to next month, at our October Stated Communication we will have as our speaker Bro. Patrick Craddock, owner of the Craftsman’s Apron, and Junior Warden of Conlegium Ritus Austeri No. 779 in Nashville, Tennessee. He will speak on the importance of regalia to the Craft. I hope to see you in Lodge for what is sure to be an interesting presentation.

Fraternally,

John Olson
Master
